

k-love brings a moral presence to our city. the christian music should not be replaced by any other because we need a positive influence.